Professional Profile

Hard working individual who strives to be the best in every aspect of life. Rising Junior at Fairleigh Dickinson University where I study Business and Marketing. I am also a member of the Division 1 Men's Volleyball team. I bring a good attitude, team first mentality, fast learning, and drive to a group or organization. I am seeking an internship in the world of sports because that is where my passion is. What separates me from my peers and competition is my mindset and life experience.
